

CONVOCATION of SEMINOLE WAR HISTORIANS

St. AUGUSTINE, FL

August 11, 12 and 13, 2017

The convocation will gather organizations and individuals throughout Florida interested in the Seminole War era.

Do not miss this unique event! REGISTER NOW.*

Highlights:

- >Friday evening social, St. Augustine Officers Club. Tours of the FLNG museum by the curator.
- >The annual living-history parade and ceremony at the National Cemetery Saturday. Organized by the West Point Society of North Florida.
- >A festive lunch. Elgin Jumper presents his reflections on Seminole art + culture.
- >Research, publications, archeology, Fort King, and Seminole history panels.
- >Living-historians' workshop.
- >Presentation by award-winning authors Mary Lou and John Missall.
- >Sunday brunch. Retrospective of Frank Laumer's groundbreaking research, publications, and organizational initiatives. Commentary. Guest speakers.

Schedule and registration forms at www.seminolewars.org

 (On line at <http://events.eventzilla.net/e/convocation-of-seminole-war-historians-2138894235>)

Organized by the Seminole Wars Foundation, Inc.
Follow us on Facebook /Seminolewar.

